

October 28

The Legacy of Abraham Lincoln
by Dr. William Anderson

October 30
The One-Room Schoolhouses of Isabella County
by Jack Westbrook
and Sherry S. Sponseller

Presented by the Clarke Historical Library
CENTRAL MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

William Anderson to Speak on Abraham Lincoln

On October 28, Doctor William Anderson will speak in the Park Library Auditorium on the subject, “The Legacy of Abraham Lincoln.” Dr. Anderson is the chair of the Michigan Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Committee and has a personal, lifetime interest in Lincoln. The committee, which celebrates the 200th anniversary of Lincoln’s birth, seeks among many goals to:

- Increase knowledge and awareness of Abraham Lincoln;
- Increase historical literacy about Abraham Lincoln;
- Encourage research, scholarship, and increased understanding about Abraham Lincoln;
- Leverage the bicentennial for discussion of the celebration's themes of freedom, democracy and equal opportunity.

RSVP by calling the Clarke Library at (989) 774 – 3352 or via e-mail at clare1cj@cmich.edu

Wednesday, October 28, 2009
The Legacy of Abraham Lincoln

Dr. William Anderson will speak at 7:00 p.m. on the legacy of Abraham Lincoln. Dr. Anderson is chairman of the Michigan Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Committee and has long been interested in Lincoln.

Friday, October 30, 2009
The One-Room Schoolhouses of Isabella County

At 6:30 p.m. Jack Westbrook and Sherry S. Sponseller will introduce their newly published book focusing on the history of Isabella County's one-room schoolhouses.

Both presentations will take place in the Park Library Auditorium, and are free and open to the public.

A reception will follow each presentation in the Clarke Library.

If you plan on attending one or both presentations, please RSVP to the Clarke Library, by calling (989) 774-3352 or by emailing clarelcj@cmich.edu.

Individuals with disabilities requiring accommodations should contact the Library at (989) 774-3352. CMU, an AA/EO institution, strongly strives to increase diversity within its community (see http://www.cmich.edu/Affirmative_Action_Office.htm).